

Attention:

State and Tribal Judges, AAGs, OCS Caseworkers,
Parent Attorneys, Youth Attorneys, GALs, CASA
Volunteers, Tribal Representatives, ICWA Workers and other child protection practitioners

Team Scholarships 2012

The Alaska Court System has limited scholarship funding available to promote and support training (in & out-of-state) for child protection practitioners. If selected, scholarship recipients will be reimbursed for travel and registration fees for interdisciplinary teams of child protection practitioners to attend certain conferences

Applications

For detailed instructions and application forms, go to <http://courts.alaska.gov/cinaproj/scholar-team.pdf>

Preferred Conferences

For a list of preferred conferences, go to <http://courts.alaska.gov/cinaproj/cina-cp-training2012.pdf>
(note: applying for a preferred conference does not guarantee a scholarship award)

State Employee?

If you are a state employee, please be sure to contact your agency to determine the agency's internal policy and procedure for approving conference attendance

Interested in learning more about the Child in Need of Aid

Court Improvement Committee? Go to:

<http://courts.alaska.gov/cina-cic.htm>